Sir:

I have just this minute finished reading, three times to be sure I comprehend it, an article in Time Magazine of 9/1/61, entitled "How the Cuban Invasion Failed" pps 14-15.

Congratulations on your courage and determination to do right during those first days of the Cuban fiasco. It must have been a pitifully frustrating period for you and Mr. Bissell.

I am sure I am not alone, now that the 'Time' account has been published, when I say that CIA should never have been made the scapegoat or should it have been tried to be made the scapegoat.

The Cuban dead should at least be given the courtesy of burial at Hyannisport, Palm Beach and Cap D'Antibes.

God Speed!

Robert B. Ameron, President
